PREFACE.

THE want of such a book as this has long been felt in Canada. Rarely, if ever, we think, has there been brought together in one volume, so rich a treasury of gems in Sacred Song. It requires but a glance at the Index to be satisfied of this; and we feel confident that we will receive the thanks of our musical friends for the production of a book which will largely supply the place of more than a score of publications now in circulation. We have made selections from the Boston Anthem Book, Taylor's Choral Anthems, Harmonia Sacra, Dyer's Anthem Book, Bradbury's Anthem Book, Sabbath Bell, Diapason, Anthem Thanksgiving, Liber Musicus, Novello's Musical Times, and various other popular works; also a number of favourite Pieces of Sheet Music, together with several excellent Manuscript Pieces never before published.

Our connection with Church Choirs and Singing Societies, from childhood, has enabled us to know something of the wants of the people in this direction. We have not, however, depended solely upon our own judgment and experience in the matter. Leaders of Choirs, and Musicians throughout the country have been consulted, many of whom have given us valuable suggestions. To these we tender our sincere thanks. We are especially indebted to the Rev. JOHN MCCAUL, LL.D., President of University College, Toronto, for an original Anthem; also to THOMAS TURVEY, Esq., late of Toronto, WM. HILTON, Esq., and L. A. MAFFRE, Esq., of Montreal, for original compositions.

The book is not denominational, but suitable for all Evangelical Churches and Societies. The words, for the most part, are scriptural, practical, and devotional, and, in their adaptation to the music, exceedingly happy and appropriate.

We trust that the Divine blessing may accompany this offering; that the words of Inspiration, given in Song and Anthem, may be engraven upon the hearts of the thousands who sing, as well as of the thousands who listen; that more light and truth and love may be seen in the Sacred Word, and that new life and strength and grace may be imparted to travellers on their pilgrimage to the Better Land.

"We'll crowd Thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;
And earth with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill Thy courts with sounding praise."

FOR THANKSGIVING.

2.

We thank thee for the tender ties
That long have fondly bound us;
We thank thee for the loving eyes
And warm hearts that surround us,
Still at the altar, board, and hearth,
Unbroken circles gather—
For HOME, that paradise of earth,
We thank thee, oh! our Father.

3.

We thank thee that the sword of death,
No longer wildly waveth,
We thank thee for the feeble breath
Thy matchless mercy saveth—
That in thy house to praise thy name,
Thy grateful children gather;
And find thy smile of love the same—
We thank thee, oh! our Father.

4.

We thank thee, though thy chastening rod
The tide of life hath frozen,
Though we have laid beneath the sod
Our cherished, and our chosen;
That we may meet where yawns no grave,
Nor tearful mourners gather,
Through Him who died, the lost to save,—
We thank thee, oh! our Father.
